Product Description

Honey Bee Products 100% Nature Organic Fresh honey cream Royal Jelly

Royal Jelly is a thick, milky substance secreted by the pharyngeal glands on the 6th and 12th day after birth of a special young nurse. The Queen Bee is fed with royal jelly throughout her life, while worker bees are fed with ordinary pollen. It has been found that nutrition is the only difference between worker bees and queens. The queen bee is made, not born. Queen Bee is the mother of 250,000 bees, and has more than 2,000 eggs in amazing real estate in one day. The Queen's life span lasts five years, and the life expectancy of workers is quite short, averaging three months or less.
