Product Specifications

-What is MGO?

MGO is trusted Manuka honey grading systems, MGO is the magic ingredient in Manuka honey, with well-documented antibacterial and antimicrobial properties.

Honey that has a higher MGO level and more potent antiseptic properties is used for medical purposes. It may help with wound treatment, digestive problems, cough, sore throat and acne. These issues are caused mainly by pathogenic microorganisms, that's why antibacterial properties of the Manuka honey may assist in treating them.
