Product Description

Apiculture Beekeeping Equipment Beehive Flow Automatic Self-Flowing Honey Bee Hive

Description:

Flow beehive takes more love with less labor

Turn the Flow button and observe that pure fresh honey flows out of the hive and into your jar. No confusion, no fuss, no heavy work, no expensive processing equipment.

With a clear final frame view, you don't have to open the hive to see when the honey is ready. The extraction process was very mild and the bees barely noticed. Our revolutionary Flow system has reduced the pressure on the bees during the extraction process and made it easier for beekeepers.

About the flow hive, it is made of high quality Chinese fir, good manual work, and fashionable design, which is very durable to use. Until right now, our this product has been exporting to USA, Latin American countries, Australia, Canada, New Zealand so on many countries. And it need to be used with the plastic honey flow foundation set together. One flow beehive, one set plastic honey flow foundation.
