Product Description

100% pure natural yellow beeswax bars 28g Food Level

Beeswax is an organic compound secreted by the worker's beeswax glands, having the aroma of pollen and nectar. Beeswax is a fatty substance secreted by the four pairs of wax glands under the abdomen of the worker bee, which is used by the bees to build the bee's spleen and seal the hive. Beeswax appears pale yellow, yellow or brown in appearance, malleable and lubricious.
