We source our beeswax from a range of hives from all over the world, this wax is melted, filtered and poured into slabs and broken down further for smaller weights.

Our pure beeswax is clean, and smells lightly of honey. It is excellent for multiple applications including cosmetics, candle making, and industrial applications. We do have a Safety Data Sheet (SDS / MSDS) for our wax, so that it can be used in laboratory settings as well. We can ship in any quantity, and offer discounts for orders over 1000kg.

Please feel free to contact our team if you have any questions or require larger volumes.
