Product Description

New Bee Products Fresh Pressed Jujube Flower Honey Water Separation Type for Drinking
Honey water is a supplement. The main ingredients for making this product are jujube honey and drinkable water, which have beauty, immune enhancement, anti-aging and other effects.

The function of honey water:

Honey water is mainly made by mixing honey with water, which contains a large amount of fructose and glucose. Due to its direct absorption by the human small intestine, glucose can quickly enter the bloodstream and combine to form blood sugar, providing energy to the body and preventing hypoglycemia. Moderate consumption of honey water can also produce liquid, moisturize the lungs, increase the sensitivity threshold of the respiratory tract, reduce cough frequency, dilute sputum, reduce the stimulation of the respiratory epithelium by sputum, and promote sputum excretion.
